MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING Between
Nation Centre for Good Governance, New Delhi
And
Indian Institute of Management, Sirmaur

The National Centre for Good Governance [hereinafter referred to as "NCGG"], Department of Administrative Reforms and Public Grievances (DAR&PG), Govt. of India (GOI) and the Indian Institute of Management, Sirmaur [hereinafter referred to as "IIMS"], hereinafter jointly referred to collectively and commonly as "the Institutions" agree upon the general terms of this Memorandum of Understanding (MoU), in accordance with a mutual desire for cooperation and collaboration aimed at improving, strengthening, and promoting relations between them, to further the realization of their respective objects, in larger public interest.

Article I

The Institutions hereby express their intent to promote cooperation between their academic members, students, and research groups.

Article II

Building on their respective strengths, the Institutions will explore mutually beneficial relationships, including, but not limited to the following endeavors:

1. Exploring joint programmes including academic title granting programmes.
2. Collaborating for resource-sharing, including faculty experts to participate in joint consulting and research projects and as per respective institutional guidelines.
3. Promoting and encouraging activities of joint research in the fields of common Interest.
4. Collaborating in joint initiatives (e.g., policy-formulation, government tasks etc.)
5. Collaborating in international initiatives including with multilateral organizations such as the United Nations and the Multilateral Development Banks.
6. Allow the use of each institution's facilities and infrastructure for activities such as MDPs, workshops, or other events, ensuring the sharing of resources and support for mutual initiatives on mutually agreeable terms.
7. Encouraging exchange of academic faculty and researchers.

Article III

The precise nature and specific details of collaboration between the institutions as regards the common activities and forms of cooperation and the modalities thereof under the framework of this MoU will be finalized as described under Article IV below.

Article IV

The terms of cooperation for each specific event and/or activity arising from this MoU shall be mutually discussed on case-to-case basis and agreed upon separately with an agreement between Institutions prior to the initiation of such event and/or activity. By mutual consent, this MoU by itself shall not have any legal or financial obligations or implications for the Institutions.

Article V

This MoU is written and signed in two originals in the English language. It will come into force as soon as it has been signed by the respective authorized representatives of the Institutions and will remain in force for a five-year period from the date of execution and may be renewed for an additional five years upon mutual consent. The MoU may be terminated by the authorized official representative of either Institution by written notice. Such notice must be given at least three months before it becomes effective. Such termination shall not affect the completion of any event or activity underway at the time or the rights of Institutions exchanged under this MoU, prior to the notice of termination.

Any amendment to this MoU may be made by the Institutions by mutual consent, during its validity.
